

Bangkok Bank China Donation Activity in Year 2024

Recently, a heartwarming donation ceremony was held again at Gulin Cheng Long School (“the School”) in Sichuan Province. Bangkok Bank (China) Company Limited (“Bangkok Bank China”) has donated materials to the students of the School for the tenth consecutive year through “The Power of Thai” charity project. With the help of Shanghai Smiles Foundation, volunteers from the Head Office donated warm winter jackets on behalf of the Bank to all students this time, aiming to provide material assistance and spiritual care for the left-behind children through school uniform donations.

At the donation ceremony, the School expressed gratitude to the Bank for its continued care and support over the past decade; Bank volunteers also conveyed their sincerest wishes to the students in the speech, encouraging them to cherish learning opportunities, learn knowledge and skills well, and delivered school uniforms to the students by hand. The children took over their school uniforms, with thankful and joyful smiles on their faces. The School student representative expressed that they would cherish the care from the society, study hard, live up to the expectations of society, and gave back handmade gifts. After the ceremony, the volunteers participated in a fun physical education class under the guidance of the teachers. The playground was filled with a happy atmosphere, and this unforgettable time will also become the precious memories in the hearts of the children.

In order to further improve the financial literacy of teachers in remote mountainous areas, Bank volunteers also held a financial knowledge popularization lecture, helping the teacher group understand the basic financial knowledge such as the latest methods of fraud and illegal fundraising, credit investigation and deposit insurance, as well as legal knowledge such as the Anti Telecommunications Network Fraud Law and the Anti Organized Crime Law.

Over the past ten years, the care for the children of Gulin Cheng Long School has never disappeared. Every donation in the past decade has been a warm embrace of the children's spirit and a beautiful expectation for the future. In the future, Bangkok Bank China will continue to actively fulfill its corporate social responsibility, providing care and assistance to more students in need, helping them to grow strong in the sunshine and make the contribution to the society.
